The wolf and the seven little goats

Once upon a time, there lived an old mother goat, who had seven baby goats in a small house.

She loved her children very much .

/one goat, two goats.....children count goats on the blackboard/

One day, when the mother goat had to go to the market, she said to them:

"Dear children, I am going to the forest . Don't open the door till I come. Be careful about the big hungry wolf. Be very careful!"

"Don't worry mother! said the children.

As soon as the mother goat left, the children started playing. They jumped and ran , they were very happy. Soon, they heard : knock, knock on the door.

It was the wolf who had come to eat the baby goats.

„Open the door.“ he said.

„Let's open the door.“ little goats said.

„Yummy, yummy yummy 7 goats for my tummy.“ /pupils count 7-1=6/

„Yummy, yummy yummy 6 goats for my tummy“ /6-1=5/

...

Big hungry wolf ate every goats except the seventh who was hiding in the clock.

After eating so much he went to sleep.

Soon, the mother goat came home. She found her young son hiding in the clock.

He told her about the wolf.

„Bring me the scissors and many stones!"said mother.

The mother goat took the scissors and cut open the wolfs tummy.

The wolf was very thirsty. He fell in the well and drowned.

The seven kids jumped and run whit their mother .

They were very happy.
